CONFIDENTIALITY

As part of providing a psychological service to you, I will collect and record personal information from you that is relevant to your current diagnosis/circumstances. This information will be a necessary part of the psychological assessment and treatment that is conducted.

All personal information collected during the provision of the psychological service will remain confidential and secure except where:

1. It is subpoenaed by a court; or
2. Failure to disclose the information would place you or another person, including a child, at serious and imminent risk (i.e. a Mandatory Report); or
3. Your prior approval has been obtained to liaise with or provide a written report to another professional or agency (eg. a GP, Obstetrician, Gynaecologist or a Lawyer); or
4. If disclosure is otherwise required or authorised by law.

Where possible, you will be advised that a notification will be or has been made. Your counsellor will determine the perceived risk and make an assessment based on the available information. If necessary, your counsellor will consult their professional supervisor prior to making the disclosure to relevant authorities.

PROFESSIONAL SUPERVISION

As Psychologists, we receive professional supervision (by a more senior qualified professional) on a regular basis to ensure we provide a quality counselling service. At times, patient cases are presented in professional supervision- only non-identifying information is discussed and will remain confidential in these consults.

Cancellation of appointment will incur the following fee, including the first session:

100% of the fee if cancelling within 24 hours, on the day of, or did not show for our appointment (i.e. $190)

I have read and agree to the above Terms and Conditions and will be responsible for any cancellation fees incurred.
